

Sanders, Trowel and Ward Center for Excellence

2017 Summer Camp

Guest Speakers

Day 1 Sandra Lee Swift – One of seven Lee Sisters who were arrested 17 times among them over five years for sit-in protests against racial segregation. The Lee Sisters are recognized in the Smithsonian Museum and African American Museum in Washington, DC.

Day 2 Candice Johnson- Kentucky Higher Education assistance authority outreach counselor

Day 3 Tanya White - Elementary School Counselor-JCPS and author.

Day 4 Marie Bradby-Children’s Book Author. She shared two of her books, “More Than Anything Else” and” Where Are You From”

Day 5 Otis Brown Jr. – 18 year old pilot who plans to graduate from the U.S. Naval Academy and to become a pilot in the Navy.

Day 6 Lewis Patton- Retired Band Director - Member of Green Castle Baptist Church’s “Sons of David” band. He flies model planes (F-100 Super Sabre, Super Eagle and BA Hawk). He is one of top 20 RC pilots in the world.

Day 7 Daphine Woolridge - 2017 Derby Princess – Current University of Louisville Student

Day 8 Three Guest Speakers:

Jessica Southern- Dynamic Middle School English Teacher “Rap Music and Reading Strategies

Ms. High- Phenomenal Engaging Middle School Science Teacher – “Live Science Labs”

June Shackelford- Has a son, Jesse Shackelford who is a 2016 U.S. Military Academy graduate and is a 2nd Lt. in the Army. He is currently attending Ranger Training which is the same as Navy Seal training. She shared Jesse’s Westpoint uniform and items.

Day 9 Officer George McMillian-Sixth Division-Division Resource Officer- Extremely patient, knowledgeable and kind

Day 10 Mr. Dwight Drinkard Jr. aka Teddy D. Creator and Host of “Why Not Podcast” Local Podcast Mentor and he has a National and International following. Unforgettable experience for campers with Teddy D.